

CLASSICAL AFRICA EDUCATIONAL TOUR X ANCIENT EGYPT (KEMET) - 2009

Escorted by: Prof. Manu Ampim

Tour Highlights (Land of the Pharaohs), include:

- The great pyramids of Giza & the Great Sphinx (Heru-em-akhet), which is the most well-known statue in the world.
- The ancient capital city of Memphis and the expensive monuments of Sakkara.
- The massive Dahshure & Meidum pyramids, and the Mastaba of Ra-Hotep & Nofret, whose famous statues in the Cairo Museum are forgeries, according to Prof. Ampim in his book, Modern Fraud.
- The Egyptian Museum with its renowned collection of well-preserved Pharaonic antiquities.
- The temples of Luxor and Karnak, which constitute one of the largest open-air museums in the world.
- The famous Valley of the Kings/Queens and Noble Tombs, including the Tomb of King Tutankhamen & the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut.
- Field research training, optional college credits, and much more...

---

Professor Manu Ampim is a leading primary researcher and historian on African & African American history and culture. He has written two books and has conducted pioneering first-hand research in 18 countries, and has taken educational tours to Egypt and Central America since 1987. Ampim is currently an instructor of Africana Studies at Merritt College in Oakland, CA, and host of the popular internet radio program, "Africana Studies" on BlakeRadio.com.

MUST CALL TO RESERVE YOUR SEAT -- SPACE IS LIMITED!

FREE INFORMATION SESSION - 1 hour

DATE / TIME: Saturday, September 27, 2008 at 2:45 pm (sharp !!)

LOCATION: Merritt College, 12500 Campus Drive, Bldg. A-218, Oakland, CA
(Go up 35th Ave. which turns into Redwood Rd, make right on Campus Drive)

CALL TO RESERVE YOUR SEAT: 510.482.5791 or Profmanu@acninc.net
http://manuampim.com/kemet\_09.pdf

---

Tour Schedule: May 29 – June 12, 2009 (only $3799 - all inclusive)